Missing Girl's Body Recovered from Lake Powell

Page, AZ – The body of Kamberlie Binks, the South Jordan, Utah girl missing since October 8th, has been recovered from the waters of Bullfrog Marina on Lake Powell. The three year old child disappeared while playing on the docks at the marina.

A tripod sonar device utilized by the Utah Highway Patrol's Dive Team found Bink's body at approximately 1:45 pm (UT) on October 11th. Divers with the National Park Service and the Utah Highway Patrol recovered the body.

Personnel from the National Park Service, Utah Highway Patrol, Utah State Parks, Kane/Garfield County Sheriff's Department, and Summit County Sheriff's Department, along with two volunteer K-9 units out of Arizona, were involved in the search.
